WE ARE AUTHORIZED TO AN-NOUNCE THE HOR. NAT. WOLFE AS A CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS IN THIS DISTRICT AT THE ENSUING AUGUST

LAUREL BLUFF, KY., May 4, 1863.

To the Editors of the Louisville Journal: So far as I can learn, the Donglas Democrate are loyal and wish the war prosecuted, until the rebellion is crushed. The Breckinridge Democrats are for the war coasing, that the rebels may triumph, of course. Mr. Harney's course does not surprise loyal Democrats much, as he has been regarded as unsound for the last six months. However, one thing does surprise us; and that is, after he, in 1857, took such strong ground against Know-Nothing ism, that he would, in 1863, identify himself with the Knights of the Golden Circle.

A DOUGLAS DEMOCRAT. This man, although a follower of the brazes calf, has, at least, this much honesty in him: that, slthough he misrepresents us in some respects, he acknowledges that for six months (that is, ever since we saw the reality of preclamstions, alming to change the present status of labor and capital in the South) we have op posed it, believing that laws, constitutions and the like, made to protect citizens in their homes, must and shall be maintained. The Journal has been trying to prove us inconsistent; his correspondent, who is doubtless a reader of our paper, or assumes to be, proves

Whether we are loyal or not we leave frank ly and fully to the readers of our paper, repudiating now, as ever, that test of loyalty that undertakes to disturb the present condition of the State, and put au inicrior race on an equality with a higher.

And to charge also a Government price of three hundred dollars per negro, hought by the Administration in the District of Celumbia against all law, and three hundred dollars for carry on the war.

If so many pieces of silver for each don's put the negro and the white man on an equality, our market and financial column, to which every mcrchant and farmer in the Northwest looks for the rise and fall of gold, and the value of beef and pork in Kentucky, had better be discontinued

There is one thing surprises this "Douglas Democrat"-that we in 1857 were against Know-Nothingism, etc.

Know-Nothingism was dead and laid in its grave in the fall of 1856, one year before this choice Democrat of the Journal dates it, when Buchanan was elected President. We never tried to disturb the dead, however much we have felt it necessary to oppose its ghostly spirit that walks the earth lately.

If there are any Knights of the Golden Circle, we denonnce and oppose them. We never have belonged and never will belong to any secret political society, and never will enopen and before all men, and we would scorn sccreey.

But since this correspondent charges us with luconsistency, it is only fair to warn him, if he is not already as worn member of it, with all the grips and pass words at his fingers' ends, that there is now in Kentneky a sceret "loyal league," originated in the East, got un and intended to carry this State wherever th Administration chooses to put it. But as we deleated one secret polltical society, we intend and will defeat another; and if he will not go with ns, he had better get ont of the way, fo the cars are in motion.

value of lying about the army of the Potomac The telegraph has been busy with reports that The result is that he has won a reputation as Hooker had crossed the Rappahannock agair. and was moving on without resistance-no enemy to be found. All of which was false. Hooker, it seems, has not crossed the river at portant service which has now been entrusted all, and there is no probability that he will make another such experiment. After acveral days' hard fighting an army is not ready, without time to recuperate, to resume offensive operations.

We have been told, too, of demonstrations from Fortress Monroe npon Richmond, which took Richmond one day, according to a startling report. This costs a good deal of gun powder, beside the mortification produced by the reflection upon one's gullibility. Our private opinion is, that these lies are unprofitable. They don't pay expenses. We suppose one object is to make a show for foreign con sumption; but these false representations will be corrected in time, and the impression will be much worse than If these falsehoods bad never been told.

There were some symptoms of disaffection, which would, perhaps, have amounted to something, if Hooker had not met with a disester, instead of winning a victory. The notice of the arrest of disloyal persons in Mlssiesippi a few weeks ago, shows that all is not yet prevails in that city, and now that all the right in Dixie. The State of Georgia does not troops have been withdrawn from the defenses relish some of the Confederate acts. Indeed, of the place, they fear that Peck, with his it would be marvelona if the griuding despotism In the South did not produce reaction Sooner or later it must, as all such despotic practices do. The Government, however, can maintain its system of terror as long as its armles are victorions. Defeats only create disaffection; success lusures a lease of power. This is one of the worst effects of the nnsuccessful attempt to advance from the Rappahannock. We may not know the extent of the disaster, but the rebels will know all about of our regiments as they return from the war it and more too; for they will add all the em Their faces are browned and weather-beaten; beilishments necessary to make ont a spiendid victory. There is a commendable tone about the prayers and thanksgivings of these robels. "If any le afflicted, let him pray," the good book says, and the rebels heed the advice. The Abolitionists are not much offlicted, and their show of devotion is in the worst taste. They assume that the Lord ought to be on their slde, and if He doesn't help them He doesn't do His duty. THE PROVISION QUESTION.-In some THE PROVISION QUESTION.—In some sections of the country, particularly those from which the arruy has drawn largely for subsletence, and where negroes are few and the principal portions of the farming population are enlisted in the war, provisions are becoming scarce, and, on account of the redundant entrency, are difficult to obtain among many who have no better facilities for making money than when it was less abundant in the connerty. The poor and improvident classes about most of the cities near which troops have been stationed, are unable to obtain that quantity stationed, are unable to obtain that quantity and quality of food which is necessary to the promotion of confort or health. While this state of affairs may be a necessity, and a most leplorable, not to say alarming one, we are as ured that such necessity does not exist from actual sca-city of provisions. Two causes have chi-fly operated in bringing shout the existing condition. First, the army supplies have been drawn from the markets in such quantities as to keep up a constant advance in prices, which, together with the effects of a superabundant currency, has created a fictitious value, that the supply of pro-visious does not justify, and which the agents of the Government are not disposed to allow, while seizures are tolerated; and this latter phase has brought about the second and more ustifiable cause of the apparent deficiency, by ausing the holders of provisions to concest hem. Under these circumstances a sort of amine-panic will in all probability pervade the vhole country, and as is slways the ease with whole country, and as is siways the case with people in a panle, no institer what may be its cause, the most imprindent course will be sure to be pursued. People who have an abundance will be less disposed to sell, at any price, than if there was no apprehension of actual suffering, or prospect of general scarcity.

I am sorry to say that I have seen, ten or fifteen miles from Huntsville, a good deal of land prepared for cotton. Why is this? Do these men love money better than they do their country? Are they ignorant of the fact that the enemy hope to conquer us by our failure to produce enough food to sustain ourselves? Do they not know the present high prices of meat, corn and flour? What object have they in view in raising cotton? Are they aware that they are virtually aiding the enemy to subjugate themselves, and that II all the men in the Confederacy were to uct as they are doing, that we would, not-withstanding the conrage of our soldlers, be a conquered people? On the left of this work is a triangular work calculated to mount one heavy gun. These works are connected with another fort by a covered way and double rifle pits extending one quarter of a double rifle plts extending one quarter of a mile, constructed with much labor and show-ing great skill on the part of the constructor. The third fort commands theriver in all directions. It monated one splendid Blakely one hundred pounder, one eight-inch and two thirty pounders. The latter were lying burst-ed or broken on the ground. The gunboats had so covered up everything with earth that it was impossible to see at first what was there, with the exception of the guns that were dismounted or broken. Every gun that fell into our hands was in good condition, and we found a large quantity of ammunition.

These are by far the most extensively built works, with the exception of those at Vicks burg, I have seen yet, and I am happy to say that we hold them. I am dismonnting the guns and getting on poard the amminition. Since making the above examination new forts have been passed nearly fluished. They had no gnue, but were complete of the kind as regards position, and had heavy field-pieces in DAVID D. PORTER. Acting Rear Admiral, Commanding Mississippi Squadron.

RECRUITS CAPTURED.—The Maysville Eagle, of the 9th, save:

For a month past Mr. William Waller, for-merly of Maysville, and now of Chicago, has been engaged in recrulting in this vicinity for the Confederate service. We understand that it was not generally known that he was in the neighborhood, but that his presence and busi-ness was concealed from all but those who diness was concealed from all but those who directly sympathized with his acts. It was ascertained by Mr. W. H. Wadsworth that young Wailer and a squad of recruits would leave the county for the rebel army on Thureday night, and that they were encamped at the Fair Grounds. Informing none but those necessary for the work of his purpose, Mr. Wadsworth perfected his plans for pursuing the whole company, which worth perfected his pishs for parsulng and capturing the whole company, which he did with the assistance of five men. We have heard the lugenuity of Mr. Wadsworth on the occasion highly complimented, and the game was bagged without resistance, and without a shot being fired. They were well armed, and had freely helped themselves to a number of time horses-belonging to Union. to a number of time horses belonging to Union citizens. We regret, for the sake of the friends citizens. We regret, for the sake of the friends and parents of the young men, that they were engaged in a business which will probably result in serious discomfort and inconvenience to them. They were sent to Cincinnati on last evening by the Bostona. Their names are Geo. Laws, Jas. Sendder, Wm. Waller, Mark Wellace, Jas. Lloyd, Ben McAtee, Wat McDaniel, Shultz Leach, Jas. Rumford, J. M. Bennett, and Wm. Vater.

On yesterday a young man named James Ricketts was heard, while under the infinence of liquor, to declare his intention to join the rebcis, and to threaten that before leaving he would fire the city of Maysvilie. He was arested and sent to Cincinnati. On Thursday eight Confederate soldiers, who had been engaged in stealing horses and promiscuously plundering Fleming county, were aptured and sent to this city and on yesterday were forwarded from here to Cincinnati. Altogether the week's work has been quite Clerk C. C. U. S., Sonthern District of Ohio.

On motion of Flomen Ball, Esq., District Attorney, a recess of one half hour was taken, in order to enable him to produce a written statement which Gen. Burnside was preparing and desired to present. The following is copy of the document as read by Mr. Ball: HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF THE OHIO, ) Cincinnati, Onio, May 11, 1863. {
To the Honorable the Circuit Court of the United States within and for the Southern District of

The undersigned, commanding the Department of the Ohio, having received notice from the clerk of said court that an application for the allowance of a writ of habeus corpus will be made this morning before your Honors on behalf of Clement L. Vallandigham, now a a single recruit from joining the ranks, by bringing the laws of Congress into disrepute, or by cansing dissatisfaction in the ranks, it is equally the duty of every citizen in the department to avoid the same evil. If it is my duty to prevent the propagation of this evil in the army, or in a portion of my department, it is equally my duty in all portions of it; and it is my duty to nse all the force in my power to step it.

If I were to find a man from the enemy's country distributing in my camps apecehes of their public men that tended to demoralize

If I were to find a man from the enemy's country distributing in my camps apeeches of their public men that tended to demoralize the troops or to destroy their confidence in the constituted anthorities of the Government I would have him tried, and hung if found guilty, and all the rules of modern warfare would sastain me. Why should such speeches from our own public men in a great emergency like the present should avoid the use of party epithets and bitter invectives and discontage the organization of secret political societies, which are always undignified and disgraceful to a free people, but now they are absolutely wrong and injurious; they create dissensions and discord, which, just now, amonts to treason. The simple names "Patriot" and "Traitor" are comprehensive enough.

amonuts to treason. The simple names "Patriot" are comprehensive enough.

As I before said, we are in a state of civil war, and an emergency is upon us which requires the operations of some power that moves more quickly than the civil.

There never was a war carried on successfully without the exercise of that po wer.

It is said that the speeches which are condemned them. That is no argument. The sit is zens do not rentize the effect upon the army of our country, who are its defenders. They have never been in the field; never faced the emiss of their country; sever underwent the privations of our soldiers in the field; and, besides, they have been in the habit of hearing their public men speak, and, as ageneral thing. Of approving of what they say; therefore, the greater repositions of our soldiers in the field; and, besides, they have been in the habit of hearing their public men speak, and, as ageneral thing. Of approving of what they say; therefore, the greater repositions of our soldiers and plead that they are exercising liberty. In this department it cun not be done. I shall use all the power I have to break down such license, and I am sure I will be sustained in this course by all honest men. At all events, I will have the con-lousness, before God, of having done my sciousness, before God, of having done my duty to my contry; and when I am swerved from the performance of that duty, by any pressure, public or private, or by any prefudice, I will no longer be a man or a patriot.

I again essert, that every power I possess on earth, or that is given me from above, will be used in defense of my Government, on all occasions, at all times and in all places within this department. There is no party-more com-

Pursuant to the adjournment of last Saturday afternoon, Judge Leavitt, presiding in the Circuit Court of the United States, listened, Monday, to the lengthy arguments, pro and con, in the above mentioned case. Court conveued at ten o'clock, and, after the reading of the minutes, the Ilon. George E. Pugh appearing with Hon. George H. Pendleton, as counsel for Mr. Vallandigham, renewed his motion of Saturday for the issuing of a writ. The following document, which was read on Saturday last, was then produced by Mr. Pugh: that Government, at the proper time and by the proper method. Let them freely discuss the policy in a proper tone; but my duty re-quires me to stop license, and intemperate discussion, which tends to weaken the anthorlty of the Government and army; while the latter is in the presence of the enemy, it is cowardly so to weaken it. This license could not be used in our camps—the man could not be used in our camps—the man would be torn in pieces who would atatempt it. There is no fear of the people losing their liberties; we all know that to be the cry of demagognes, and none but the ignorant will listen to it; all intelligent men know that our people are too far advanced in the scale of religion, civilization, education and freedom, to allow any power on earth to interfere with their liberpower on earth to interfere with their liber-ties; but this same advancement in these great characteristics of our people teaches them to make all the necessary sacrifices for their country when an emergency requires.
They will support the constituted authorities of the Government whether they agree with them or not. Indeed, the army itself is a part of the people, and is so thoroughly educated in the love of civil liberty, which is the best In the love of civil liberty, which is the best guarantee for the permanence of our republican institutions, that it would likely be the first to oppose any attempt to continue the exercise of military authority after the establishment of peace by the overthrow of the rebellion. No man on earth can lead our citizan coldlery to the establishment of a military despotism, and no man living would have the folly to attempt it. To do so would be to stal his own doom. On this point there be to scal his own doom. On this point there your petitioner says that he has ever since been, and now ie, detained in custody in said city of Cincinnati, under a military guard, of which said Ambrose E. Burnside is commander.

Your petitioner alleges that he was thus violently seized in his ewn house, in the night time, without any warrant issued upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, be to said that we can have peace if we lay down our arms. All sensible men know this to be nutrue. Were it so, ought we to be so cowardly as to lay them down until the authority of the Government is acknowledged?

I beg to sail his own doom. On this point there an early and now in the sail his own doom. On this point there and peace if we have an have peace if we lay down our arms. All sensible men know this to be nutrue. Were it so, ought we to be so cowardly as to lay them down until the authority of the Government is acknowledged?

I beg to sail his own doom. On this point there and so be no ground for apprehension on the part of the people. brothers, elsters, sons, danghters, relatives, friends and neighbors of the soldiers in the field to aid me in stopping this license and intemperate discussion, which is discouraging onr armies, weakening the hands of the Govonr armies, weakening the names of the co-ernment and thereby strengthening the ene-my. If we use onr honest efforts, God will bless us with a glorious peace and a nnited country. Men of every shade of opinion have the same vital interest in the enppres-sion of this rebellion; for, should we fail in sion of this rebellion; for, should we fail in the task, the dread horrors of a ruined and distracted nation will fall alike on all, whether patrlots or traitors. patriots or traitors.

These are substantially my reasons for issuing "General Order No. 38," my reasons for the determination to enforce it, and also my reasons for the arrest of the Hon. C. L. Vallandigham for a supposed violation of that order, for which he has been tried. The result of that trial is now in my hands. result of that trial is now in my hands.

In enforcing this order, I can be unanimously sustained by the people, or I can be opposed by factious, bad men. In the former event quietness will prevait; in the latter event the responsibility and retribution will attach to the men who resist the anthority, attach to the men who resist the anthority, and the neighborhoods that allow it.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

A. E. Burnside.

Mel. Gen. Com'd'g Dep't of the Ohio.

Following the reading of the foregoing, Mr.

Pugh made an argument, at great length, occupying nearly two hours and a half in his remarks, which were replete with eloquent thetoric and the fine points of civil and millrhetoric and the fine points of civil and mili-tary law. After referring to the paper of Gen. Burnside, as being a political speech from a gentleman carrying a sword and wearing epau' lets, he dwelt at considerable length npon the dnly of the Court to grant the writ, insisting that the whole power of the Federal Government was pledged to give it, and that he who breaks through the right to It infringes upon the libertles of every American citizen. His Honor had no choice in the matter, as the Constitution plainly pointed ent what course he must loilow. The speaker's duty as counsel, was merely to show that the law of the land entitled his client to it; succeeding in which it became the duty of the court to the body in court. With regard to Clerk C. C. U. S., Sonthern District of Ohio.

CINCINNATI, OHIO, May 11, 1863.

The application on my behalf, on May 9th, 1863, to the Circuit Court of the United States, for a writ of habeas corpus, to release me from Illegal military custody, was made by Hon. George E. Pugh, at my express instance and request.

C. L. VALLANDIGHAM. may be beat to submit to it when it is in force—he preferred doing so. He drew copionsly from English law and history, quoting Sir Mathew Halt's assertion that "martial law is no law at all." Dwelling at considerable length upon arguments on the illegality of the arrest of Mr. Vallandigham, he affirmed that by no authority are words recognized as treason; over acts alone constitute that. The proclamation of the President shows that the place in which Mr. Vallandigham was arrested was not in rebellion. landigham was arrested was not in rebellion, and on this ground he denied the right of the General commanding the Department of the Objo to deprive that or any other person of his liber!y, nnless it could be clearly proven against them that they were engaged in treasonable practices. We al-ways have had rebellion of greater or less magthe allowance of a writ of habeas corpus will be made this morning before your Honors on behalf of Clement L. Vallandigham, now a prisoner in my custody, asks leave to submit to the court the following STATEMENT.

If I were to indulge in wholesale criticisms of the policy of the Government, it would demoralize the army under my command, and every friend of his country would call me traitor. If the officers or soldiers were to indulge in such criticisms, it would weaken the army to the extent of their infinence; and if this criticism were universal in the srmy, it would cause it to be broken to pieces, the government to be divided, our homes to be invaded, and anarchy to reign. My duty to my Government forbids me to indulge in such criticisms; officers and soldiers are not allowed to so ladinge, and this course will be sustained by all honest men.

Now, I will go further. We are in a state of civil war. One of the States of this department is at this moment invaded, and three others have been threatened. I command the department, and it is my dnity to my country and to this army to keep it in the best possible condition; to see that it is encouraged. If it is my dnity that would weaken the army, by preventing as single recruit irom joining the ranks, by bringing the laws of Congress into disrepute, or by cansing dissastisfaction in the ranks, it is equally the duty of every citizen in the department to avoid the same evil. If it is my duty to prevent the propagation of this evil in the army, or in a portion of my department, it is encoulty my date in this country, and the time that the would have the right to doubt that General Burnside sheared this section of the Cream Burnside sheared this section of the President and all others in anthority, and even to indulge in such the right to do what he may then as place the r soundly argumentative, presenting eral Burnside, in answer to the attack, and it opposition to the granting of the desired writ.

As we do not desire to disconnect our sketch of his speech, we postpone its publication until to-morrow, when we will be able, probably, to gives, also, the decision of Judge Leavitt.

One of the prisoners captured from a Virginia regiment told some of our men at Falmouth yesterday that the force which went down from this line of the Rappahannock to Snifolk were as follows:

Hood's and Pickett's divisions, with two brigades of Pryor's, all under Longstreet; Pickett's division, five hrigades, commanded respectively by Generals Armistead, Garnett, Kemper, Jenkins and Coree. Hood's division has three brigades, commanded respectively by Generals Anderson, Benning and Laws; and a fourth brigade, from Texas, commander's name not known—perhaps the brigade formerly commanded by Hood himself.

Anderson's brigade has the Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, Eleventh and Fifty-ninth Georgia regiments. Benning has the Second, Fifteenth, Seventcenth and Twentieth Georgia regiments. Armistead has the Ninth, Fourteenth, Thirly-eighth, Fifty third and Fifty-eventh Virginia regiments. Kemper's is also a Virginia brigade. Laws has Alahama regiments entirely.

After the 25th inst. ali lands not thus disposed of will be open to ordinary sale, or iocation at private sale; although, where two or more parties apply for a tract at the same time, the law of 182) requires it to be put up for saic to the highest bidder.

one through French sources, the other from the city of Mexico, and telegraphed to New York from San Francisco. The two accounts differ radically. According to the first, the French loss at Puebla has been trifling, and the city is destined to fail into their hands speedily. The Mexicans claim, on the other hand, that but a portion of the city has been captured by the invaders, and that they have been repnised in several assaults on the fortified convents. -Gen Banks issued an order at New Orleans on the 29th ultimo to the following effect:

"W. G. Bettertop, convicted by evidence and confession of fraudulantly violating the regulations concerning trade in this department by concealing articles contraband of war in barrels, entered at the customhouse as barrels of beef, and by other frandulant violations of the same regulations, with the intention of transporting them writhout anythority to of the same regniations, with the intention of transporting them, without authority, to the enemy's lines, is sentenced by the Commanding General of this department to pay a fine of $25,000, to be appropriated to the improvement of the city of New Orleans, and to an imprisonment of one year at hard labor in Fort Pickens for the benefit of the United States."

-The New York Times now puts our losses in the late battles on the Rappahannock at seventeen thousand. Dr. Letherman, the Medical Director, estimates the wounded in our hands at ten thousand, and seven thousand wounded in the hands of the enemy. This account does not cover the list of killed. After taking all the accounts togeth-The following is a list of sick and er, we have come to the conclusion that our total loss in killed, wounded and prisoners is not less than twenty-five thousand.

The Nashville Dispatch of Wednesday contains the following account of the killing of the rebei Van Dorn :

ing of the rebei Van Dorn:

The reported killing of Gen. Van Dorn by Dr. Peters has been confirmed. It occurred in his quarters at Spring Hill, on the morning of the 7th Inst. Dr. Peters has arrived in this city, and from him we learn that the cause of the difficulty which resuited in the death of Van Dorn, was an interview held thirty hours previous to the killing, in which the latter agreed, on his honor, to give Dr. Peters a written statement the next day, setting forth four distinct facts. Dr. Peters said to him that upon the fulfillment of this promise, he would spare his life to his wite and children, although Van Dorn had said he cared nothing for his own wife. The next day Dr. Peters was sick and did not call on Van Dorn until the second day, Thursday morning, about eight, when he demanded of Van Dorna compliance with his promise, which he seemed rot inclined to do. Dr. Peters then said that he would give him helf fan hour; in which to commit and the care of the control of to do. Dr. Peters then said that he would give him helf an hour in which to comply, and dis-tinctly notified him that, in case of failure, his life should be the forfeit. He then walked up into the village. On his return Van Dorn read to him what he had written. The first clause fully compiled with his promise; the accord was an entire misrepresentation; and the other two acknowledgments he refused to make. Dr. Peters then denounced him for his bad faith, when Van Dorn cursed him for a "cowardly dog," and ordered him to leave the room, or he would kick him out. Dr. Pe-ters then drew his pistol and fired, the ball taking effect in the left side of the head, and producing instant death.

Dr. Peters picked up the statement Van Dorn had prepared, and has preserved It as circumstautal evidence of preceding events, and mounting his horse, rode off. Avoiding the pickets at Hart's, he crossed Duck river and srived at Shelbyville, when he learned that Gen. Polk, to whom he had intended surrendering himself, had issued an order for his arrest. The next morning he left for Winchester, disgnised, and passing through Gainesboro' and Gallatin, arrived at this place Monday evening.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF VIRGINIA, May 7, 1863. }
General Orders No. 59:
With heartfelt gratification the General commanding expresses to the army his sense of the heroic conduct displayed by officers and men during the operations in which they have just been engaged, under trying viclositudes. You attacked the enemy strongly intrenched in the depths of a tangled wilderness, and again on the hills of Fredericksburg, fifteen miles distant, and by the valor that has triumphed on so many fields, forced him once more to seek safety beyond the Rappahannock. While this glorious victory entitles you to the praise and gratitude of the nation, you to the praise and gravitude of the nation, we are especially called upon to return our grateful thanks to the only Giver of victory, for the signal deliverance lie has wrought.

for the signal deliverance lie has wrought. It is, therefore, earnestly recommended that the troops unite, on Sunday uext, in ascribing to the Lord of Hosts the glory due unto H s name. Let us not forget, in our rejoicing, the brave soldiers who have fallen in defense of their country, and while we moura their loss, let us resolve to emulate their noble example. The army and country alike lament the absence, for a time, of one to whose bravery, energy and skill they are so much indebted for success.

The following letter from the President of the Confederate States is communicated to the Confederate States is communicated to the army, as expressive of his appreciation of its success:

"I have read your dispatch, and reverently unite with you in giving praise to God for the success with which He has crowned our arms. In the name of the people, I offer my cordial thanks to yourself and troops under your command for this addition to the unprecedented series of great victories which your army has achieved. The universal rijoicing produced by this happy result will be mingled with a general regret for the good and brave who are numbered among our killed and the wounded."

GEO. W. SMALL.

In the retreat of the 6th corps from Fredricksburg the Usion troops captured a large number of prisoners, though competied to leave most of the wounded on the field. Nearly one whole brigade, consisting of one General, twenty Captains, three Lieutenants, and two thousand privates, which charged upon us, were, I am informed, cusnared into our lines and taken prisoners. We killed the Colonel, L'entenant Colonel and Major of the 7th Lonislans. There is no question as to our having mowed the rebels down by whole regiments when they charged upon our batteries. They lay in heaps upon the Lattlefield. Not a gun was taken, though so many charges upon them were made. The corps retired in good order scroes the river, saving their camped of a few which were gobbied up in the momentary panic which ensued when the enemy first made their appearance in our rear above Fredericksburg. The road was filled with ambulances, pack mules and vehicles.

All the Generals are praising the gallantry of Colonel Miles, of the 61st New York, who behaved gailantly and was wounded severely. He is said to be one of the best officers and bravest soldiers in the army. He had command of several regiments upon the lines near the Chancellor House, and with his skirmishers repulsed several strong attacks without their being sible to reach his line of battle. If he should live, he will certainly be promoted.

NO MAN'S NAME IS MORE INTIMATELY CONnected with the history of the Materia Mel ca of the United States, or more favorably known as a ploueer in med cal discovery, than that of Dr. JOHN BULL, of Louisvile, a.y. His huncitable preparation of Sarsaparillia, has long sloot at the head of the various coupounds of that v lustile drag. His Comprong Preventaor Wild Cherry, has become a household word throughout the West and South; and his Worm Lozer ges, in le s than a year after their introduction attaload a repulation as wide-spread as the continent of North Amerlea. But t e croweing glory of his life remales to be attained in his aitest discovery, or rather combination, for he does not cl-im to have been the discoverer of CEBRON, which is the basis of the bitters now offered to the public. That honor belongs to the mailve innabirauts of Cen rai America, to whom its vitues have been
